FERC Approves Park and Loan Service on Quest Midstream's KPC Pipeline

OKLAHOMA CITY – October 23, 2009 – Quest Midstream Partners, L.P. ("QMLP" or the "Partnership") today announced that the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission ("FERC") has issued an order approving Park & Loan service on QMLP's KPC Pipeline ("KPC"). Park & Loan service involves delivering gas to the pipeline for holding until a future date or having the pipeline loan gas to a customer to be paid back at a later date. By providing this service, KPC can assist consumers, producers, and marketers in managing price and volume risk in their respective businesses.

Tom Saunders, Executive Vice President of QMLP, said "We are pleased to receive FERC approval to provide a new service on KPC that enhances the value of the pipeline to our shippers. We look forward to implementing several other initiatives on the pipeline in the near future that will further increase the service options available to KPC's existing shippers and to potential new customers." To contract for Park & Loan service, inquire about new services, or to learn more about KPC, please contact Cathy Pockock, Vice President, Marketing and Commercial Development of QMLP, at (405) 702-7433.
